LOCAL MATTERS.

WAKE COUNTY CONVENTION.—The Conservative-Democratic party of Wake County will hold a Convention at the Court House in Raleigh, on Thursday, July 11th, to nominate candidates for the Legislature and for the county offices.

Townships are requested to hold meetings and send Delegates.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

We surrender our local space to-day to the interesting proceedings of the Baltimore Convention.

The salesmen and employees of the large Dry Goods house of Messrs. W.
B. & R. S. Tucker & Co., have presented Mr. T. McGhee, the junior member of the firm, with a pair of very nice gold spectacles.

Norfolk Dunston, col. Superintendent of the A. M. E. Sunday School desires us to return the thanks of the school to some unknown friend, for the present of a large number of tracts and papers.

The county campaign will be opened by the Rads at Millburne on Friday next. The Rads have generously proposed to divide time with our candidates when they are nominated.

John Pesend, Esq., of Pesend, Lee & Co., of this city, has received from a friend in Alaska, a box of curiosities, consisting of Indian toys, carved out by hand, beaded and straw work, &c., together with a lot of furs, doubtless the finest known in this far country.

REAMS' TOBACCO.—Special attention is directed to the advertisement of this first class Raleigh Manufacture, which should be patronized by our city dealers in preference to all others. Mr. Reams is an old hand at the business, earned his reputation before moving to Raleigh, and will sustain it here. He is assisted both in the office and in the factory by the Messrs Parham, of Granville, both gentlemen of experience and skill.

REVENUE ITEMS.—There was received at the Internal Revenue office for the 4th District, from all sources during the Quarter, ending June 30th, $101,- 519.20.

The largest amount received in one month from all sources, was for the month of June, and $15,294.33.

Of the amount received, $101,540.34, over $100,000.00 was from the sale and manufacture of tobacco.

There was received at the office for the fiscal year ending June 30th, 1872, $373,242.68, all of which has been turned over to the Secretary of the Treasurer, by Col. I. J. Young, Collector.

MAJOR SEATON GALES IN NORFOLK.— The Odd Fellows of Norfolk, Va., on Thursday last celebrated the eightteenth anniversary of the laying of the corner stone of their Hall, commonly known as the Opera House, and on this occasion Major Seaton Gales, of this city, who stands at the head of the Order of Odd Fellows in the State, delivered, by invitation, an address which is spoken of in the most complimentary terms by the Norfolk papers. The Journal speaking of it says:

"Major Gales delivered an address on the origin, the character, the history and the progress of Odd Fellowship.
Of the address we can only say that for thorough knowledge of the subject, for profundity of thought and richness of imagination, for the elegance and purity of the language employed, it could not be surpassed. We regret that we have not the space for the publication of the whole address, which was as elegant in composition, as it was admirable in delivery."

The Virginia says: "Col. Gales delivered an address which was attentively listened to by all who heard it, and the universal remark was that it was the ablest effort which had ever been made within these walls."

THE BALTIMORE CONVENTION.

Meetings of State Delegations—Organization of the Convention, &c.

BALTIMORE, June 9.

Last evening was devoted to meetings of delegations, for organizations and speech making at several places in the city. All the principal hotels are densely packed, and private houses are open to personal friends.

The situation at midnight is unchanged. There is evidently a large majority in favor of the nomination, though it is still the paramount theme.
Samuel Ball, of Louisiana, with his friends, bolted the bolters primary meeting yesterday.

Nevada, New Jersey and Oregon were not represented in the meeting of the National Committee, yesterday.

The Kentucky delegation comprised by the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Chairman be instructed to cast the vote of this delegation for candidates for President and Vice-President, as each delegate shall direct, and that he be authorized, when two-thirds of the Convention shall have voted for a candidate in the name of the united delegation, to move to make such nomination unanimous.

The Georgia delegation is unanimous for Greeley, with some modifications and additions to the Cincinnati platform.

The Louisiana delegation has put one straight-out nomination man, but will support Greeley if the Convention nominates him.

The Mississippi delegation resolved to coincide with the majority of the Convention, whatever its action may be.
Delaware will vote first to last for a straight Democratic ticket.

In calling the Convention to order Mr. Belmont said, "Gentlemen of the Convention, it is again my privilege to welcome the delegates of the National Democratic party who have met in order to present to the American people the candidates for President and Vice-President, for whom they shall select for the suffrages of Democratic and Conservative votes of this great Republic. At our last National Convention, on the 4th of July, 1868, I predicted that the election of Gen. Grant would result in the gradual usurpation of all the functions of government by the Executive and by Congress to be enforced by the bayonets of a military despotism. The white majority of the people of the United States have witnessed with grief and sorrow the correctness of that prediction; they look forward with fear and apprehension to the dangers which threaten us if they by the re-election of Gen. Grant and the policy thus pursued by the Radical party be continued; the thinking men of both parties have become alive to the fact that we are now living under a military despotism, which is overriding the civil authority in many States of the Union, that by the enactment of arbitrary and unconstitutional laws through a depraved majority in Congress the rights of these States are enforced and centralized are undermining the very foundation of our federal system and are sweeping away the constitutional framework erected by the wisdom of the fathers of the republic.
These acts have become so glaring that the wisest and best men of the Republican party have severed themselves from the Radical wing which is trying to fasten upon the country another four years reign of corruption, usurpation and despotism, and whatever individual opinions we may entertain as to the choice of the candidates whom they have settled on in opposition to Gen. Grant, there cannot be any doubt of the patriotic impulses which dictated their action, nor can any fault be found with the platform of principles upon which they have placed their candidates. The resolutions of the Cincinnati Convention are what the country requires, and they must command the hearty support of every patriot throughout the vast extent of our land. In the struggle which is before us we must look to principles and not men, and I trust that no personal predilections or prejudices will deter us from doing our duty to the American people. General Grant has been a good and faithful soldier during our civil war; his stubborn and indomitable courage has helped to crown our people's heroic and patriotic service with the most unbounded generosity.
I am willing to concede that his influences on taking the Presidential chair were good and patriotic, but he has most signally and most disastrously failed in the discharge of the high trust imposed upon him by the confidence of a grateful people.

He is at this moment the very personification of the misrule which is oppressing us, and his re-election is fraught with most deplorable consequences, for the welfare of the republic and endangers the liberties of our people. On the other hand Mr. Greeley has been heretofore a bitter opponent of the Democratic party, and the violent attacks against himself individually, which have from time to time appeared in his journal, certainly do not entitle him to any sympathy or preference at my hands; but Mr. Greeley represents the National and Constitutional principles of the Cincinnati platform, and his admirable and manly letter of acceptance has shown that he is fully alive to their spirit, and that if elected he means to carry them out honestly and faithfully. Should you therefore, in your wisdom, decide to pronounce in favor of the Cincinnati candidates, I shall for one most cheerfully bury all past differences, vote and labor for their election with the same zeal and energy with which I have supported heretofore the candidate of the Democratic party. American people look with deep solicitude to your deliberations; it is for you to devise means by which to free them from the evils under which they are suffering, but in order to obtain that end you are called upon to make every effort and party preference. However much you might desire to fight the coming battle for our rights and liberties under one of the trusted leaders of the Democratic party, it will be come your duty to discard all consideration of party traditions, if the selection of a good and wise man outside of our own rank offers better chances of success. You must remember that you are here not only as Democrats but as citizens of our common country; and that no sacrifice can be too great which he demands at your hands."

Mr. Belmont, after some personal remarks, nominated Thomas Jefferson Randolph, of Virginia, saying that it is an auspicious omen that a son of the author of the Declaration of Independence is to inaugurate the struggle of the Democratic party for freedom and equality for every American citizen and against oppression and tyranny in our fair land.

Mr. Randolph was elected by acclamation. He said: "I am aware that the very great honor conferred upon me by this body is due to no personal merit of my own, but is a token of respect to the State from which I come, and is a recognition of other circumstances possibly adventitious. I am perhaps the oldest member of this body, and a life of eighty years with the Democratic Republican party constitutes me a senior member. I remember freshly every Presidential contest, from the first election of Jefferson, to the present time, and I can say with truth, that I remember none which involved higher questions of personal liberty, local self-government, honest administration and constitutional freedom, than the present, or one which demands of our party and our people, a calmer or more earnest recourse to fundamental principles. It strikes me as a duty of this body and of this hour to wrest the Government from the hands of its present despotic and corrupt holders, and to place it in honest hands, to restore the citizen everywhere to the proud consciousness of personal right, and to all the States, perfect integrity of local self-government. This, with the recognition of the supremacy of the civil Constitution and the law, will, in my judgment, discharge all our present duty."

nation into the affair has been going on to-day with closed doors.

Meeting of Anti-Greeleyites.

BALTIMORE, July 9.

The Baltimore Anti-Greeley Democrats assembled between 12 and 1 o'clock this P. M. at Maryland Institute. Present about one hundred persons.

When the Convention was called to order by Mr. Flanders, it was moved and seconded that the preliminary arrangements be temporarily continued. Van Allen called for the reading of the report of the names of delegates. Dis-son Duane suggested that the Committee on the subject have further time, which was agreed to.

W. H. Murrell, of Louisville, said he understood that it was not the object of this Convention to take any definite action until it should be ascertained what course has been taken by the Baltimore Convention, on the action of which hinges somewhat this Convention's action. This Convention will report in what is done by the Baltimore Convention provided it adopts a democratic candidate. If that Convention should fail to do so, this Convention propose to take some steps for the purpose of continuing the organization of the Democratic party; for the purpose of furthering this object, the speaker moved the appointment of a Committee to report an address to the democracy of the country.

Van Allen, understanding the motion did not include the making of a platform, seconded the motion. The reading of the Democratic party was well known, and those who were here assembled, Stokes, of South Carolina, spoke in favor of initiating a movement which would bring together the pure Democracy of the country, and preserve its organization.

Peter Keyser, of Indiana, earnestly advocated the necessity of keeping the Democratic party together.

Murrell's motion was agreed to, and the chair appointed as the Committee to prepare a Democratic address: Murrell, of Kentucky, Chairman, Saml J.
Bayard, of New Jersey, Geo. D. Earler, of Virginia, Joseph Ledlie, of Illinois, and E. Keyser, of Texas.

On motion of Francis Hopkins, a Committee of seven were appointed on permanent organization.

THE BALTIMORE CONVENTION.

Doolittle's Speech—Permanent Organization—Interesting Proceedings, &c.

BALTIMORE, July 9.

The speaker's gavel is made from a piece of live oak from the old original Constitution. Reverly Johnson appeared on the platform and was loudly cheered. The Committee on credentials and organization were appointed. Belmont's remarks were frequently interrupted by loud applause, and the mention of Greeley's name received loud demonstrations of approval. The Band played Dixie when Randolph took his seat as temporary Chairman.

His speech was delivered with much energy and effectiveness considering that the speaker is nearly an octo-genarian, and was repeatedly cheered.

Rev. Henry Slieck being presented, addressed the Throne of Grace.

The rules of the former Democratic Convention were adopted, and a resolution of thanks to Belmont also adopted.
Recess till 4 o'clock.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Ex Senator Doolittle, of Wisconsin, was made permanent Chairman. Senator Bayard and Governor Hoffman conducted him to the Chair amid great applause.

Upon taking his seat, the Chairman said: "Gentlemen of the Convention, I thank you for this great honor—words can hardly express how much, but you will allow me to say, once for all, that I will personally do my best to see that the duty and the purpose which bring us here. Two years, nearly five years after the bloody period of the civil war has closed, the Liberal Republicans of Missouri, feeling keenly all the evils of the prescriptive test oath, country-brotherhood, and the missions of the war, had left upon them long after the war itself had ceased, and leaving largely the Executive Federal power in the hands of legal elections, determined to organize a movement to restore equal rights to all of our citizens, [applause] white as well as black, [applause] to restore local self-government, and to arrest the further centralization of Federal power. [Applause.] They then said this thing has gone far enough, if not already too far; time has come when a honest and patriotic Republican must halt, and re-assess the vital doctrine of Republican government; that under the Constitution, the powers of the Federal Government are defined and limited, [applause, and cries of good, good,] and that the people of the States have the right to govern themselves in their own domestic affairs upon the basis of the equality of all the States before the higher law, before the Constitution, and the equality of all men before the law, [applause,] of universal loyalty, amnesty, suffrage and peace, taking no steps backward, taking no right and franchise which had been secured to the blacks, pleading themselves to support them all in their full vigor. They at the same time, demanded in those same words of peace, in the name of the Union name of republican government itself, that freedom and equal rights should be restored to the white people, [great applause.] They organized nearly forty thousand strong, and called upon E.
Graz Brown [applause] to lead the movement; they placed him in nomination for Governor—then what followed?
30,000 Democrats and Republicans [cheers] looking upon the success of that movement as resolved to sustain it with their whole strength. Love of the equal rights of all men and in spirit with that union that brings men to act together who have been politically opposed to each other all their lives upon other questions and in other times, and without violating honor, logic, conscience or consistency, this patriotic union was based upon higher grounds than ordinarily control political action.
[Great applause.] Even those who had fought against each other in battle gladly handed over the bloody sword, renewed applause, and each by side like brothers with hearts beating in union, beating strong with the same high purpose, they helped to bear its flag to a glorious victory. That, gentlemen, is Liberal Republicanism, [enthusiasm, and that is Democratic Republicanism, [great enthusiasm.] The victory which came from that union was the end of prescription, test oaths, of pain and strife, and of all disloyalty; in a word, the real end of the civil war came with that victory, and did not come until then in Missouri. [Intense applause.] It is evident that state it gave the flag of freedom to seventy four men who had been bound and chained. Missouri is now a free State in this Union, with all her rights, dignity and equality under the Constitution, and not one member of disloyalty, any where heard by that union. Federal dictation in Missouri in their local elections was overthrown, and by that union strife and hate have given place to peace and to good will, by that union liberty with equal rights for all have been given to the State undisturbed prosperity, and to let people a joy almost un-speaking. So great was their joy, and so complete their success that the Liberal Republicans of that State were not content without making an effort to extend the same union of Liberal and Democratic Republicans, and with it, the same blessing of liberty, peace and equality to all other States. [Rounds of applause.] Accordingly on the 24th of March last, they resolved to invite the Liberal Republicans in all the States to meet in National Convention in Cincinnati on the first day of May. The invitation was accepted. There were indeed a great response, they came by thousands, in such vast numbers that a delegation of representatives of all the States was formed, both from principle and from necessity to give form to its proceedings. Many of the ablest men in the country, lately leaders of the Republican party, were there and took part in its deliberations. They were assured large numbers of Liberal Republicans

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

Meeting of Anti-Greeleyites.

BALTIMORE, July 9.

The Baltimore Anti-Greeley Democrats assembled between 12 and 1
o'clock this P. M. at Maryland Insti-
sons.

When the Convention was called to order by Mr. Flanders, it was moved
and seconded that the preliminary arrangements be temporarily continued. Van
report of the names of delegates. Dis-
son Duane suggested that the Committee on the subject have further time,
which was agreed to.

what course has been taken by the Baltimore Convention, on the action of
which hinges somewhat this Convention's action. This Convention will report in what is done by the Baltimore Convention provided it adopts a democratic candidate. If that Convention should fail to do so, this Convention propose to take some steps for the
of the Democratic party; for the purpose
of furthering this object, the speaker
to report an address to the democracy of
the country.

form, seconded the motion. The read-
known, and those who were
here assembled, Stokes, of South Carolina, spoke in favor of initiating a movement which would bring together
preserve its organization.

advocated the necessity of keeping the Democratic party together.

to prepare a Democratic address: Murrell, of Kentucky, Chairman, Saml J.
Bayard, of New Jersey, Geo. D. Earler,
of Virginia, Joseph Ledlie, of Illinois,
and E. Keyser, of Texas.

permanent organization.

A VOTE FOR RADICALISM—WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

Does any man who contemplates voting for any Radical nominee at the next election consider what a vote for Radicalism means?

If not, we beg him to stop and for a moment think. In 1870, a few weeks before the election, Gov. Holden suspended the Constitution and laws. He raised an army of ruffians, partly from Western North Carolina and partly from Tennessee to support whom cost Seventy-Four Thousand dollars of the people's money—which was paid without authority in law.

By means of this army of desperate men, a large number of innocent persons were arrested without warrant and cast into prison. Some of these persons were tortured and hanged by the neck to make them testify as the Radicals wanted them to testify. For these crimes against the Constitution, and against civil liberty, Gov. Holden was impeached.

The Radical party, in their State Convention which nominated Governor Caldwell, solemnly endorsed Governor Holden's course. That party went out of its way to do this.

And this same party has the impudence now to ask the people to vote for the Radical candidates, and thus sanction all the horrors of the Kirk war!

Can the people afford to do this thing?

Let them consider well the meaning of a vote cast for the Radical nominees.

Such a vote is an endorsement of Holden a Kirk—an endorsement of despotism and misrule.

WHO IS RESPONSIBLE?

The Radicals had complete control of the State Government from 1868 to 1870, and since then they have had control of two branches of the Government—the Judicial and Executive departments. This cannot be denied.

Under Radical control, the people have experienced a degree of misrule, official corruption, criminal extravagance and outrage which is without a parallel.

This state of affairs is monstrous to contemplate! It almost staggers human belief.

Who is responsible for all these criminal outrages against the people and the State? Who did these great wrongs?

The answer is plain: the Radical party! Nobody else but they had the means, the power and the opportunity to commit these evils and perpetrate these crimes.

It was their cry and boast that "none but Republicans should hold office."

Well, "Republicans" did hold the offices. And behold the result!

The Radicals do not deny their swindlings and crimes. Vide Samuel F. Phillips' speech at Nashville. They admit the robberies and the misrule. They are bound to admit them. And yet they now ask to be continued in power. They hope to carry the election by the consolidated negro vote, and by misleading, deceiving and buying a sufficient number of white men to make a majority.

Will the people allow this to be done? We do not believe they will. They cannot, if they intend to live and prosper in the future.

Let them hold the Radicals to a strict responsibility and vote them down at the polls.

MOVING HEAVEN AND EARTH.

We see constant allusion in the Northern papers to the efforts of the Grant Administration to carry North Carolina in August, at all hazards, for the Radical ticket. The moral effect of such a result will have great weight in the Presidential contest in favor of Grant.

As a sample of the dispatches which are sent from Washington City to the North, concerning our election, we copy the following telegram to the New York Journal of Commerce:

"The Grant Republicans are making extraordinary efforts to carry the North Carolina election. Notwithstanding the liberal contributions from here, the cry comes up to-day for more money and speakers. Secretary Boutwell leaves for the State on Friday, and Secretary Delano follows quickly after. Both are to stump the State. Ex-Senator Morgan says that a million dollars will be forwarded if necessary."

The Era of yesterday contained the appointments of Messrs. Boutwell and Delano to speak in North Carolina during the present month at Greensboro, Charlotte, Raleigh and Fayetteville.

We do not believe North Carolina can be carried for the Radicals by any amount of speaking or money.

Our people in every portion of the State seem thoroughly determined to throw off Radical rule—which is another name for impoverishment, outrage, and ruin.

MERRIMON IN GUILFORD.

We surrender a large part of our editorial space this morning to the interesting account of Judge Merrimon's speech at Greensboro on Monday last.

We are assured by our correspondent that Guilford will vote for the Democratic candidates at the next election.

It will be seen from this letter that rumors are rife that the Radicals will use a large portion of the corruption fund to carry the Fifth and Seventh Congressional Districts.

Money cannot save them now. The people have decided on their downfall and defeat will be their fate in August.

GEN. COX'S SPEECH IN JOHNSTON.

We learn that Gen. W. R. Cox addressed the Johnston County nominating Convention, at Smithfield, last Saturday, after Judge Merrimon had delivered his speech.

Gen. Cox confined his remarks to points not touched by Judge Merrimon, and dwelt particularly on the excessive taxation in this country compared to that of foreign nations.

We are pleased to see our prominent politicians take such an active part in the present canvass.

There is much work yet to be done, and after the adjournment of the Baltimore Convention we shall have many distinguished speakers from the other States to assist us.

GREAT MASS MEETING AND BARBECUE AT WELDON.

The Great Mass Meeting will take place at Weldon, N. C., on Friday, July 13th, instead of Saturday the 12th, as heretofore announced.

A grand time is anticipated. Senators Schurz, Trumbull, and Blair, Messrs. Doolittle, and Thurman, Governor Walker and Col. J. W. Hinton, of Virginia, General J. B. Gordon, of Georgia, and Gov. Vance and Senator Ransom and other distinguished speakers are expected to address the people.

Preparations have been made for a large crowd, and there will also be music to enliven the occasion. Arrangements will be made for special trains from Raleigh, Wilmington, Petersburg and Portsmouth at reduced fare, and the fine companies of these cities will be invited to attend.

GREAT MASS MEETING IN RALEIGH.

We are requested to state that there will be a grand mass meeting in Raleigh, on Tuesday, July 16th, of Conservatives, Democrats and Liberal Republicans, which will be addressed by distinguished speakers from all parts of the country.

Hon. Carl Schurz, Senator Trumbull, Gen. Francis P. Blair, Gov. Walker, of Virginia, and other eminent orators have been invited, and are expected to be present.

It is desired to make this affair one of the most imposing demonstrations that has ever been held in North Carolina.

MEETING OF LIBERAL REPUBLICANS.

It will be seen from the notice of W. S. Mason, Chairman of the Liberal Republican Executive Committee, published in our advertisement columns, that a meeting of Liberal Republicans will be held in this city on the 10th inst., to organize for the Presidential campaign.

WE CALL THE ATTENTION OF THE DEMOCRATIC PRESS OF THE STATE TO THE NOTICE IN OUR PAPER OVER THE STATE TICKET, AT THE HEAD OF OUR EDITORIAL COLUMNS.

TO THE LIBERAL REPUBLICANS OF NORTH CAROLINA.

A Convention of Liberal Republicans of this State will be held in this city on 10th inst., to confer and adopt such measures as will best conduce to the maintenance of the Platform of principles, set forth by the National Convention, and to the election of its nominees, Horace Greeley for President and B. Gratz Brown for Vice President.

Not yet fully organized, it is believed we are numerous enough to give victory to the approaching contest, if we are true to the issues we have raised—the issues of Peace, Honesty and a higher political aim.

The signs of a powerful campaign are of sufficient magnitude to justify the expectation that an unprecedented triumph will be achieved.

Though this notice has been unavoidably postponed, it is desired that as full attendance as possible may be had.

THE GUBERNATORIAL CANVASS.

Judge Merrimon in Greensboro—His speech—The People Enthusiastic—Guilford All Right—The Democrats at Work—Greely.

(Special Correspondence Daily News.)
GREENSBORO, N. C.,
July 8, 1872.

Leaving Raleigh last night in company with Judge Merrimon, after a pleasant ride, we arrived at this place and were met at the depot by that courteous gentleman, Mr. C. G. Yates, whose guest we are here and to whom, and lady, we are indebted for hospitable treatment.

After breakfast this morning, we walked down this beautiful village, in order to see the people and ascertain the sentiment of the county in the approaching elections. The people were found universally polite, and their sentiments will be made known in a satisfactory manner in August.

To give an idea of the status of the two political parties in this county, I will state that two years ago, the Democratic candidates for the Legislature carried it by an average of a hundred and twenty majority.

Col. John A. Gilmer, candidate for the Senate, receiving a vote as to whether a Convention should be held, the Democrats carried it by a majority of four, and one of the delegates was elected by a majority of fifteen and the other by twenty-five.

This shows the effective organization of the Democrats, and that they have in all the elections been alive to the issues involved. The young men of this place have a Conservative club numbering about a hundred and fifty members, in addition to the club organized by the older men of town.

While the clubs are distinct, yet they work in perfect harmony with each other. The Young Men's club sends a circular to different Democrats, requesting all local information which may be of importance. From this, they know positively their strength, and their organization is complete and effective.

The Democratic candidates for the Legislature opened the campaign to-day, and Guilford may be placed in the catalogue of those counties, which will go for Merrimon and the entire Democratic ticket.

At one o'clock we repaired to the grove in front of the factory where the convention met in May last, and listened to one of the ablest speeches it has ever heard.

The speaker, Judge Merrimon, was introduced by Levi M. Scott, Esq., of this place, and was received, as he rose, with applause.

Owing to the short notice and threatening state of the weather, there was not as large a crowd as was expected, still about three hundred and fifty or four hundred were on the ground.

In his introduction, the speaker alluded to the importance of the contest, and stated that he was before them as a candidate, not on personal grounds, but, as it were, at the command of the people. He spoke in detail of the frauds and corruptions of the Radical party, unheeded their villainies, and administered a scathing rebuke to carpetbaggers, those who came with a desire to get office, but said he would extend a warm welcome to all those who came with an honest intention of settling in our midst, improving their condition and building up our State. He alluded to the dangers which threaten us and stated seven fundamental principles constitute a free government: 1st. The right of every man to be free from arrest of his person, unless upon a warrant issued by a competent magistrate on the oath of a respectable witness. 2nd. The right of a man to be free from the seizure of his house or property except upon a warrant for a cause set forth in the warrant. (The Revenue system, he stated, was not regulated on this principle.) 3rd. Freedom of elections, 4th. Freedom of the press, and 5th, the right which the people had that the Constitution, the people's law, and the laws made in pursuance thereof, shall at all times and forevermore operate for the benefit of those who can take a benefit under them. These seven principles he enunciated in a clear, logical and able manner; so plain were they made that any one could understand them. He stated that if elected he would be the Governor of the people, and should labor for their advancement.

He then entered into a discussion of the administration of the Radical party in the State government, gave the history of the Constitutional Convention and stated that it cost more to construe the new Constitution than to administer the old one from the time of its foundation to the close of the war. He then went on to show the lawless acts of Holden, the amounts paid under his administration for clerk's hire and Attorney General's fees and the difference in the expenses of a Democratic Legislature and a Radical.

The speaker then entered into a discussion of the Holden-Kirk war, and showed the lawless course of Governor Caldwell from the time he went into office to the present time, and his responsibility in connection with the Robeson county outrages.

He stated that the object of Caldwell's speech in regard to the war, was to bring the names of our gallant soldiers into contempt. "They have illustrated," said the speaker, "their gallantry upon a thousand battlefields, and are the people willing to ask the future history to write shame upon the graves of our gallant dead, or willing to look with shame and contempt upon the one-legged and one-armed, who had been spared, or upon the widows and orphans of soldiers?"

Judge Merrimon then said that if any one could point to any act of his life, moral, political or professional, which would cause a blush to tinge his cheek or that of his friends he would withdraw from the canvass.

He said the way to remedy all these evils which had been heaped upon us by the Radical party was, 1st, by putting honest and capable men in office, 2nd, by educating the popular mind, 3rd, by dignifying labor.

We do not hesitate to say that this was the most statesmanlike and the ablest speech we have ever heard, and how any one could listen to it and not be convinced that our cause was just, is a mystery to us. The crowd present was enthusiastic for Judge Merrimon, and when he spoke of concluding his remarks by a shower of flowers, which came up during the speaking, which necessitated our repairing to More-head's warehouse, where the speech was concluded.

Two more appointments have been made for Judge Merrimon since he left Raleigh, one at Gold Hill, Rowan county, on the 20th, and the other at Salisbury on the 22nd inst.

Greely stock, from what I have been able to ascertain, is very good, and if nominated at Baltimore, he will receive the support of the Democracy of this county.

A gentleman informed me to-day, that he had heard from very good authority that $100,000 would be sent to this State by the National Republican Executive Committee, and that most of it would be used in this, the 5th, and the 7th Districts.

In the British Parliament a bill has been introduced for the protection of children employed in agriculture, which applies in a modified form to the fields and farm yards the principles which have long been applied to British factories and work shops. The bill provides that no children are to be employed under eight years of age, nor under ten, unless they have previously had a year at school; and none between ten and twelve years of age unless they spend part of their time at school.

YOUTH AND AGE.

The old man sits in the corner,
And his eyes are bleared and dim, His ears are dull of hearing,
And he trembles in every limb; While his grandson tall and stately, Is heir to his lands and gold—How many envy the young man!
How many pity the old!

Is the peasant who goes to his labor, Called forth by the rising sun, More blessed than him who rests At eve, when his toil is done?
Is the ship that looms from his mornings, Out bound over far seas to roam, Better off than the one that casts anchor All safe in the haven of home?

The old man sits in the corner,
Reading off in the heavenly Book,
In his heart there are thoughts of his Savior, There is peace and joy in his look; While his grandson admires in Life's whirlpool,
Is worried with cares untold;
It were better to pity the young man, Far better to envy the old!
